Rome, June 30. N. S.

THE Pope went the 27th Inſtant to the Arſenal, to view the Cannon that has been caſt there for the new Fortreſs at Port Anzo. Yeſterday the Prince of Monaco, Ambaſſador from France, made his Publick Entry with a very ſplendid Retinue. The Abbot Barretiere is ſent by the Pope with the Cardinal's Cap to the Archbiſhop of Paris. The Cardinal de Bouillon, not being able to obtain leave to continue in Italy, is gone from Coprarnola, in order to repair to his Abbey of Feurnus near Lyons in France, in compliance with the Orders he received from the French Court.

From the Saxon Camp near Riga, June 29. N. S. Four Saxon Regiments of Horſe, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Steynau, arrived here yeſterday; and the Foot and Artillery, which come by Sea as far as Memel, are expected in 10 or 12 days. Theſe Reinforcements have given great Encouragement to the Saxon Troops, who begin to talk of repaſſing the Dwina. The Swedes continue on the other ſide of the River, on the Banks of which they are raiſing ſeveral Batteries, and are making Retrenchments for the Security of their Camp, and they have ſummoned in a great number of the Country People to be employed in theſe Works.

Mittaw, June 30. The Saxon Forces near Riga have been joined by four Regiments of Horſe, and expect ſeveral Regiments of Foot in 10 or 12 days, though we have yet received no Account of their being landed at Memel. It has been reported, that there was a Contagious Diſtemper among the Garriſon and Inhabitants of Riga, but we are very well aſſured of the contrary by Perſons that are lately come from thence. The Swediſh Army are fortifying their Camp on the other ſide the Dwina, and have raiſed ſeveral Batteries along that River.

Warſaw, June 30. The King of Poland's Journey to Livonia, is again put off for 3 or 4 days; The French and Daniſh Envoys intend to accompany him thither. The Differences between General Sapieha and the Sieur Oginsky, are in a fair way of Accommodation.

Copenhagen, July 10. The Daniſh Fleet, which ſailed the 6th Inſtant towards the Baltick, were put back the ſame day by contrary Winds, and dropt Anchor off the Iſle of Ween. On the 7th the Swediſh Fleet appeared in ſight of this City, being then off Drakoe, and ſeemed to ſhape their Courſe directly up the Sound. An Account thereof was immediately ſent to the Admiral of the Daniſh Fleet, which thereupon came into our Road, in order to oppoſe the Swedes if they ſhould attempt to advance farther into the Sound; But they lay by all day, and at night came to an Anchor under the Iſland of Amack near Drakoe. The 8th, the Engliſh and Dutch Squadrons entred the Sound, and anchored under the Iſle of Ween. Nothing remarkable paſſed on the 9th. This morning the Wind blowing freſh at North-Eaſt, the Daniſh Fleet went under ſail in order of Battel, and the Swedes did likewiſe put themſelves in a Poſture for an Engagement; but the Wind changing, the Danes came to an Anchor again, and the Swedes did the like, and the Engliſh, Dutch, Swediſh and Daniſh Fleets lie now in ſight of each other, and may all be ſeen from the Towers of this Place. Several Batteries are raiſed along our Sea-Coaſt, and ſome Forces are poſted there to prevent the Enemy's making a Deſcent. A Courier paſſed through this City 3 days ago, with Letters from the Court of France to the French Ambaſſador at Stockholme.

Elſenore, July 10. On the 8th Inſtant the Engliſh and Dutch Squadrons, commanded by Sir George Rooke and Admiral Allemonde, entred the Sound; the Engliſh Admiral ſaluted the Caſtle of Cronenbourg with 3 Guns, and a like number was returned; Admiral Allemonde gave 9 Guns, and the Caſtle in return fired 3; And the reſt of the Flag-Officers likewiſe ſaluted the Caſtle in the uſual manner. Theſe Squadrons are anchor'd under the Iſland Ween, the Daniſh Fleet in the Road of Copenhagen, and the Swediſh Fleet under the Iſle of Amack; The two laſt are almoſt within Cannon-ſhot of each other.

Vienna, July 3. This Court continues to employ their good Offices for accommodating the Differences between the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holſtein, and for reſtoring the Peace of the North. Orders are given for ſending a great quantity of Proviſions to Sileſia, for the Service of the Imperial Forces quartered in thoſe Parts. The Biſhop of Paſſau being newly made a Cardinal, is expected here in few days to receive the Coif from the Emperor's hands. Signior Pignatelli, the Pope's Nuncio to the King of Poland, is gone from hence to Warſaw. The Turkiſh Ambaſſador having received freſh Inſtructions from the Port, in relation to the Buſineſs of the Limits, and particularly about the Town and Territory of Novi, together with Orders to ſend ſome Perſon of his Retinue to aſſiſt the Turkiſh Commiſſioner who is intruſted with the Management of that Affair, he accordingly ſent a Gentleman to Croatia, but the ſaid Commiſſioner would not permit him to execute his Orders; of which the Ambaſſador being informed, he has ſent an Expreſs to Conſtantinople, with Complaints to the Grand Signior againſt the Commiſſioner.

Francfort, July 11. The Elector Palatine is expected at Heydelberg on the 24th Inſtant, from whence he intends to go to Manheim and review his Forces there, and after a ſhort ſtay in that Place, to continue his Journey to the Imperial Court. The Great Maſter of the Teutonick Order has lately held a General Chapter of the Said Order at Mergenthall, and is gone to Wurtzburgh to make a Viſit to the Biſhop of that Place. The Heer Falkenier, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General, is gone from hence to Switzerland.

Cologne, July 13. The Elector Palatine arrived at Hambach the 10th Inſtant, where he intended to ſtay 2 or 3 days, and to meet the Elector of Triers at Erenbreſtein, and from thence to proceed on his Journey to Vienna. Monſieur d'Ibberville, Envoy Extraordinary from France, is gone from Duſſeldorp to the Court of the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſell.

Hamburgh, July 13. The Confederate Army continues encamped at Oldeſloe, and the Danes near Bramſtede; and both Parties exact Contributions from the Country. The Danes have demanded 50000 Dollars of the Town of Sleſwick to be paid
